Guidelines: Prohibited Items During the Scholarship Test

To maintain fairness and prevent any cheating or distractions during the test, the following items are strictly prohibited:

1. Mobile Phones and Electronic Devices

- ✧ Mobile phones, smartwatches, and any other electronic devices (e.g., tablets, laptops) are not allowed in the test area. These devices can be used for cheating or distractions.
- ✧ If you are found using any of these devices during the test, your exam will be cancelled.

2. Books, Notes, and Study Materials

- ✧ No books, notebooks, or printed study materials are allowed in the test area.
- ✧ All necessary materials (such as pens, pencils, erasers) will be provided.

3. Calculators (unless specified)

- ✧ Calculators are not allowed unless the test explicitly permits them (e.g., for specific mathematical sections).

If the use of a calculator is allowed, it will be clearly mentioned in the test instructions

1. Headphones, Earbuds, or Any Audio Devices

- ✧ Headphones, earbuds, or any audio devices (for listening to music, or any other purpose) are prohibited.
- ✧ These can be used to gain an unfair advantage or distract you.

2. Personal Items (Bags, Wallets, etc.)

- ✧ Bags, wallets, or any personal items should be left outside the exam hall or placed in designated areas as instructed by the test administrators.
- ✧ Only the essential items (e.g., ID, pen, pencil) should be brought inside the test room.

3. Food and Drinks

- ✧ No food or drink items (including water bottles) are allowed in the test area unless specifically permitted by the exam authorities (for health-related reasons).

4. Smart Glasses and Wearable Devices

- ✧ Any wearable technology (such as smart glasses) that may record or transmit information is prohibited during the test.

5. Additional Paper (unless provided by the exam authorities)

- ✧ Extra paper for writing notes or scratch work is not allowed unless provided by the exam authorities.

6. Unapproved Bags or Backpacks

- ✧ Large bags, backpacks, or other containers are not permitted in the test room unless otherwise specified.
